

Important Notice; Beijing Customs Implementing New Export System (Notice from our China Partner)

Dear all,

Beijing Customs will launch a new manifest system on the 24/11/14. All export air cargo will be affected. During the testing phases, the handling time will be increased from the past 1-2 days to 3 days or even longer.

At the same time, Beijing Customs inform a new requirements for export air shipment. The information on AWB must be accurate, and included:

- Full name of Shipper and Consignee, address and contact information
- Full description of goods
- Accurate no. of packages

Once all data upload into manifest system, any modification is not allowed and will cause penalties and extra costs.

In order to avoid shipment delay and loss, please cooperate with us to confirm consignment instruction for export shipment.

Should you have any question please feel free to contact us.

Best regards
